

The Standard.

Entered as Second-Class Matter at the Postoffice, Ogden, Utah.

ESTABLISHED 1870.

An Independent Newspaper, published every evening except Sunday, without a muzzle or a club.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and also the local news published herein.

PROUD OF OUR BOYS.

American troops so far have not been mastered by the Germans in any of the clashes on the western front. Northwest of Toul, the Boches were driven back in a hand-to-hand conflict, and yesterday to the east of Amiens, near Villers-Bretonneux, which is the Germans' closest approach to the railroad center which they aimed to take, the Americans, after a baptism of fire which lasted two hours, received the German storm troops in a manner to add glory to the achievement of American arms.

Up to now there has been nothing discouraging from the men under Pershing, who have proved they can meet the Huns in any form of warfare and beat them.

But the boys must expect reverses, however capable and courageous they may be. Before this war is over, there will be days of anxiety, but being possessed of an unconquerable spirit, which comes from never having been defeated, the American people will not falter or grow weary. They will go on until the German is tamed.

GET RID OF THE MAD DOGS.

When The Standard, a few years ago, directed attention to the danger of a spread of rabies which then afflicted the coyotes in eastern Nevada, a local writer indulged in a column of sarcasm over a prediction which he treated as absurd. In fact, the poorly informed fellow said the scare over rabies was nothing more than a wild dream.

Since then we have seen the mad animals work their way over much of the intermountain country, following the sheep trails.

Anyone who gave the subject thought was not surprised when mad dogs began to appear around here, as Ogden is directly in the path of the sheep which are moved from the Wasatch range to the desert and back, at different seasons of the year.

The first of this week a rabid dog attacked the dogs of Liberty, in Ogden valley and before the animal was killed, he had bitten nearly every dog in the community.

This is a reminder that this rabid dog crusade must not end until all danger has passed.

The death in Ogden of a man who was bitten was an impressive lesson, and now with this unmistakable recurrence of the mad-dog outbreak, no efforts should be spared to eliminate the menace to human life.

GERMANS DOING THEIR PART.

Have you noted the large number of German names in our casualty lists? It begins to look as though the German blood of this country is doing its part.

Here in Ogden, a young man of German parentage enlisted, and when he reached the aviation field, he was not content to be an assistant, but proceeded to qualify as a flier, and is now gaining rapid promotions. This same thing is going on all over the United States.

Yesterday the St. Louis and Minneapolis districts had heavily over-subscribed their bond quotas. Both districts have a large German population.

Lieut. Eddie Rickenbacker is now one of America's most brilliant bird-men on the French front.

At last the Germans in this country fully understand they are fighting to keep the world a place fit to live in. Carl Schurz and his compatriots came to America to escape the very thing the German military leaders are now seeking to inflict not only on Germany but on all countries.

A German slave master is no better than an American slave master. Americans fought American to banish slavery. Why should not the German blood of this country be given to prevent the crushing out of individual rights and opportunities, even though German must fight German?

It is difficult for men to get away from clan and creed, and be really broad and philosophical, and it all comes from the little vanities of life, which at best are empty flatteries. In our daily contact, we measure men, not by their blood, but by performance. We demand that an American be a gentleman, honorable in all his dealings and possessed of heart and soul. Otherwise, we prefer the company of a person of foreign birth. And that which we demand of the individual, we should exact of a nation.

FIGHTING IN PALESTINE AND MESOPOTAMIA.

However much the British have suffered in reverses in other parts of the war zone, they can point with pride to their campaigns in Palestine and Mesopotamia. True, they did not make a good beginning in Mesopotamia, as Gen. Townshend lost his entire command in his retreat from near Bagdad, after having defeated the Turks all the way up from the coast to Ctesiphon, but since then the British forces have been destroying Turkish armies in rapid order.

The best feature of this campaigning is that only two white divisions are in Palestine and three in Mesopotamia, the great body of the troops being made up of men from India and Egypt. With this comparatively small leavening of whitemen, the British are keeping a large body of Turks engaged at the back door of the sultan's empire, who otherwise might be drawn into the trenches on the west front.

MANY VIOLENT DEATHS IN A FAMILY.

The Standard extends sympathy to the Campbell family of Ogden.

On Wednesday, Alexander S. Campbell was accidentally killed near Kenilworth, Utah. That afternoon John S. Campbell, of Ogden, a brother, broke his collar bone while driving an automobile near Logan. A nephew, R. Leo Campbell, was injured while working on a tractor near Idaho Falls. The Campbell home in Salt Lake is under quarantine for scarlet fever.

Five years ago Arthur M. Campbell, one of the most respected engineers on the Denver & Rio Grande, whose home was in Ogden, was killed in a collision. In 1910 James M. Campbell, another brother, was killed on a Bamberger train.

In 1916, Jennie Campbell, daughter of J. S. Campbell, was drowned in Ogden river.

Tragedy has pursued the family for years, until the nerve strain must be near the breaking point.

THE SCUM COMING TO THE SURFACE.

For a conservative paper, The Saturday Evening Post in the following editorial uses some very strong language in voicing its objections to those in America who have received so many blessings from this country in times of peace and are now repaying the nation with treachery and conspiracy:

"American carelessness, cussedness and politics are responsible for the internal situation that has caused so much anxiety during the past year. In the heat and stir of preparation the scum has risen to the top.

"As America has turned her face toward the enemy every dirty cur in the country has snapped at her heels. We have found that enemy entrenched in America as well as in France—sapping in our schools, undermining in our press, burrowing in our municipal and state governments—sniping whenever a back has been turned.

"It looks bad, but it is only scum, and beneath it Americanism is coming to the boiling point. We are in the healthy condition of knowing what the trouble is. We have been too free with America—giving everything and demanding nothing. We have had a happy-go-lucky, don't-care theory that nobody need worry about what the unassimilated foreigner did or thought; that everything would come out right in the end; that there was some magic in our air that would transform the lazy, the weak, the vicious, into hard-working, honest, desirable American citizens. We have considered the 'rights' of every nationality in the world except our own.

"The traitors look like a formidable lot, but they are not. These men are simply scum—pickers, grafters, liars and demagogues—insincere, selfish and dishonest—who will run like rats once America recognizes that even rats can spread malignant disease.

"We must start by cleaning them out of the schools, the press and the government. The man who plays partisan politics and appeals to class and race is self-exposed—work against him; vote against him; throw him out. Never mind what he calls himself—Republican, Democrat, Socialist or Nonpartisan Leaguer—the label is camouflage. We need brains, honesty and Americanism this year. It is better to keep ten men out of office on suspicion, than to let one traitor in. And not all the traitors are Germans or pro-Germans. Not all the profiteers are millionaires or employees. There is something peculiarly vile about the American who tries to make money or office out of this war—who, while other men die for an ideal, snouts out gold or place among the graves."

FREE PHOTOS

Beautiful photo of Francis Bushman tonight—just a limited number available. SEE THE BEST PICTURE EVER MADE by Bushman, at Utah Theatre.

IRISH COMING TO STUMP COUNTRY

Want to Lay Their Anti-Conscription Proposals Before People of U. S.

LONDON, May 2.—There is no reason to suppose that the lord-mayor of Dublin will be refused a passport to America by the secretary for Ireland to whom he has decided to apply, says a dispatch from Dublin to the Daily News today. The correspondent, however, in alluding to the purpose of the proposed deputation to lay the case of the Irish organization opposing conscription before President Wilson, adds:

"People here are inclined to doubt whether President Wilson will receive the deputation and, if he declines, there would be some risk of a conflict of American and Irish opinion. The deputation hopes, anyway, to be allowed to lay its case before the American people in a great speaking tour."

IRISH HOME RULE POSTPONED. LONDON, May 2.—Andrew Bonar Law, chancellor of the exchequer and government spokesman, declared in the house of commons Wednesday that he could not say when an Irish home rule bill would be introduced.

This, according to some lobby correspondents of the morning newspapers, covers the fact that the introduction of the bill has been deferred and hopes of its presentation next week have been abandoned.

The Daily News says the government has met with serious difficulties in its Irish policy and cannot find a successor to Baron Wimborne who has resigned the lord lieutenantship, while the committee appointed to draw up a bill up to this time has settled virtually nothing except the preamble. Its deliberations, it is added, are held up by the issue of giving the veto to Ulster and also in considering past ministerial promises to Ulster.

The only way out of the difficulties is, in the opinion of responsible law members of the house of commons, that the government temporarily abandon both conscription and home rule.

It is nowise improbable, adds the Daily News, that this course will be adopted in the near future.

Wanted for big production of Cinderella, fifty boys and girls, only those who can sing. Come tomorrow, Friday, at 4:30 and have your names enrolled, ages 10 to 15 years. Alhambra Theatre.

WAR CASUALTIES

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The war department will resume almost immediately the practice of giving addresses of American soldiers named in the casualty lists sent from France. The decision was made by President Wilson to whom the public appealed when the addresses were ordered discontinued. The president took up the situation with Secretary Baker immediately after the secretary's return from France.

Publication of addresses was discontinued March 8. Explaining at the time why the order was issued, the war department said publication gave information to the enemy and also brought swarms of claim agents to harass relatives of men killed.

The president took the subject up when the committee on public information refused to handle the list on the ground that the names without addresses were valueless for publication purposes.

WASHINGTON, May 2.—The casualty list today contained ninety-six names, divided as follows:

Killed in action, 11; died of wounds, 2; died of accident, 3; died of disease, 7; died other causes, 3; wounded severely, 7; wounded slightly, 60; missing in action, 3.

Seven officers were named. Lieutenant Clayton C. Ingersoll died as a result of an accident. Lieutenant August Leo Sundvall died from wounds. Lieutenants John R. Feegel and Frederick B. Stokes were wounded severely and Captain Frank J. Abbott and Lieutenants Will F. Levitt and Edward Swenson were wounded slightly.

Captain Francis J. Cahill and Lieutenants Samuel Miller and Robert H. Jeffrey, previously reported missing, are now reported to be prisoners.

Killed in Action. Sergeant Fred Mitchell died as a result of an accident. Corporal Louis Oberman. Horseshoer Ira C. Watkins.

Privates Stanley Dobosz, John S. Cunningham, George A. Fairchild, Frank W. Ferraro, Joseph Francis, Arthur C. Franz, Daniel L. Romer, Jacob Tomprowski.

Died of Disease.

Corporal Robert M. Wilcox. Privates Manly D. Jackson, Richard W. Judd, Clarence F. Kelly, Louis Page, Harold E. Rowland, Luigi Tallarico.

Died of Accident.

Lieutenant Clayton C. Ingersoll.

Privates Forest A. Rippey, George F. Sanderson.

Died from Wounds.

Lieutenant August Leo Sundvall.

Private Roy Dixon.

Died Other Causes.

Privates Michael F. St. John, Carl Lygman, Charles A. Winter.

Wounded Severely.

Lieutenants John R. Feegel, Frederick B. Stokes.

Corporals Thomas F. Byron, Kenneth W. Lovell.

Privates Edward d'Olie, Joseph R. Genski, Raymond E. Jordan.

Wounded Slightly.

Captain Frank J. Abbott.

Lieutenants Will F. Lovett, Edward C. Swenson.

Corporals William J. Degrenia, Raymond Eklens, Arthur C. Havlin, Carleton M. Patriquin, William H. Turner, Michael J. Quinn.

Sergeant Warren E. Clarkson.

Mechanic David Goldsmith.

Cook John A. Ansalone.

Privates Ralph R. Andrews, Harry Atterian, Harry Rairelein, Clarence C. Bassett, Fred A. Beaulieu, Matthew J. Boyle, Harry J. Burgett, John M. Canavan, George J. Champagne, Frank E. Curtin, Walter Darling, Ovida C. Davidson, George Devo, George Doucette, Malcomb C. Eaton, Kenneth W. Farnham, John R. Fitzgerald, Thomas M. Fitzgerald, William A. Flynn, Lawrence W. Foster, Romeo C. Gagner, Thomas V. Gardner, Jerome F. Gilbert, Stanton Glover, Charles H. Haid, Joseph H. Henebery, Carleton Jensen, Eugene W. Jones, Robert A. Joy, Lorne W. Kay, George Keating, Michael J. Kelly, Lloyd R. King, William F. McKay, Thomas Maher, George Marlow, Ralph D. Phynney, Harold K. Porter, Robert L. Reid, Horace G. Standland, Elmer M. Tingley, Charles E. Twaen.

Waste-less Days

Buy tires in the spirit of the times, toward the end of conservation; buy Firestone Cord Tires

THEY deliver most tire mileage, dollar for dollar, because Firestone Cord construction has so greatly reduced internal friction and the evil effects of stone bruise.

They carry the car farther, gallon for gallon of gasoline, because of exceptional resiliency, a help to the engine rather than a drag.

They insure fewer car repairs, mile for mile of travel, because they give unequalled protection to the mechanism of the car.

And with these savings in tires, gasoline and repairs, you get extra riding comfort, easier steering, greater speed, a more responsive, lively behavior of the car in every way. In the spirit of thrift insist on Firestone Cords.

FIRESTONE TIRE AND RUBBER COMPANY
AKRON, OHIO
Branches and Dealers Everywhere
CENTRAL CARRIAGE WORKS, GEO. HUSS, PROP., OGDEN, UTAH.

Firestone Tires

SCHUMAN IS TO FIGHT AT GARLAND ON FRIDAY NIGHT

Many fans will travel to Garland tomorrow night to watch Heinie Schuman do battle with Kid Davis for the intermountain featherweight championship. The fight is scheduled to go fifteen rounds. Schumann won a warm place in the hearts of northern Utah fans with the classy exhibition he staged against Morrissey last night at the Armory hall. Being outweighted about ten pounds, he gave Morrissey a hard run for a hair-line decision.

Kid Davis is well known to Utah fight fans and the predictions are that there will be a toe to toe smashup when the two featherweights come together.

The preliminary will be between mail carriers.

BIRTHS

The following births were reported to the city health department this morning:

David C. and Mary McGee Elder, 2521 Van Buren avenue, April 19, a boy.

Franklin and Ruby Terry Hickenlooper, 1417 Washington avenue, April 2, a boy.

GOT UP IN THE NIGHT. "The Roman snail is the finest of them all," says Dr. Ward in the Strand. Very possible. Just as certain shaving soap is the best one ever tasted.—Buffalo News.

Women are to be taken on as rural mail carriers.

A Beautiful Photo of Bushman Free

NO BOLTS CAN SHUT OUT LOVE—SEE—

"WITH NEATNESS AND DISPATCH"

Laughter and Romance—Starring

FRANCIS X. BUSHMAN and BEVERLY BAYNE
Utah Theatre
THURSDAY—FRIDAY—SATURDAY
Coming—Viola Dana in "Riders of Night," and "Girl Without a Soul"

ALHAMBRA TODAY
Ben Turpin and Polly Moran
In Saucy Madeline and the Clean-Up
5 and 15c
Coming

Tomorrow and Saturday, Enid Bennett in "Naughty Naughty."
Saturday matinee only, thirty minutes stage production of "The Flower Girl"
Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, "Intolerance." Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, "The Beast of Berlin."